Celebrate Christmas early at Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie

Celebrate Christmas a little earlier this year with a great-value pre-Christmas lunch special at Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie, Sydney's newest venue for stylish dining and entertainment.

Located in Haymarket near the Capitol Theatre, Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie opened in October and has fast become a popular dining and entertainment choice for local business people wanting a stylish place for lunch or for dinner, along with tourists and theatre patrons.

Wanting to reward the establishment's growing customer base as well as to tempt new patrons, Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie chef Daniel Collins, previously Head Chef at the Russell Hotel and Wine Bar in Sydney, has created a pre-Christmas dining experience sure to please – especially given it is priced at just $45 per head for three courses and a welcome cocktail.

On arrival, guests will enjoy an exotic Christmas Cocktail accompanied by garlic foccacia and aioli to whet the appetite. Once seated, guests will be provided with a selection of three entrees including a chicken liver and brandy parfait with onion marmalade and sourdough, a traditional-style prawn cocktail or a honey roast pumpkin salad with feta, spinach and salted almonds.

Main course choices are equally tempting and include a Crisp Skin Salmon served with tomato, white bean and fennel, Roast Turkey Breast served with all the trimmings and seasonal vegetables, or Potato Gnocchi with caponata and woodside chevre. All mains are accompanied by shoestring fries and a garden salad.

For dessert, few will be able to resist the Traditional Christmas Pudding with brandy custard, even if it is still four days before Christmas. For those watching their waistlines, the Buttermilk Pannacotta with vincotto poached strawberries may be a lighter choice while still providing a sweet finish to a fabulous meal.

Available only on Wednesday, 21 December, from 12-3pm with bookings essential, the Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie Pre-Christmas Lunch is expected to be popular and to sell out quickly. This is the perfect opportunity for staff and friends to celebrate Christmas together before the holiday period begins, so organise a table of friends and colleagues and book immediately to ensure you can enjoy this wonderful offer to celebrate Christmas in style.

Reservations and enquiries for the Yardhouse Sydney: Bar and Brasserie Pre-Christmas Lunch can be made by contacting the venue on 9212 2111 or by emailing dmadden@yardhouse.com.au.
